God's Faithfulness

3 What's the advantage then of being a Jew? And what's the benefit of being circumcised?

2 There are all kinds of advantages! First of all, it was through the Jews that God gave His messages to mankind.

3 True, some in Israel refused to believe, but God's faithfulness certainly won't be cancelled out by their unbelief, will it?

4 Certainly not! In fact, God will keep His word even if every one of us is discovered to be a liar. As David wrote concerning God:

"It will indeed be proven that You spoke the truth, and You will be cleared of all charges when You are judged." (Psa. 51:4)

5 But if our sinning causes people to become more aware of how good God is, what about that? Isn't it then unfair of God to punish us? (I'm just repeating how some people reason.)

6 Certainly not! If that were so, how could God then judge the world?

7 Still others might argue, "If God's glory becomes more obvious when His truthfulness is contrasted with my lies, why then am I still condemned as a sinner?"

8 Well, if that's the case, we might as well say, "Let's live it up in sin so that good may come from it," as some falsely charge that we teach. Their condemnation is deserved.

Lesson 7- No One Is Righteous - Romans 3:9-20

We Are All Guilty

<sup>9</sup>What's the answer then? Are we Jews better than others? Not at all! We've already shown that Jews and all others are alike, under the firm grip of sin.

<sup>10</sup>As the Scriptures say:

“No one lives like he ought to, not even one person!

<sup>12</sup>Every one of them has turned aside to other pursuits. All of them, together, have become worthless. None of them practice true goodness and kindness, not even one!” (Psa. 14:1-3; 53:1-3; Eccl. 7:20)

<sup>13</sup>”Their throats are like stinking, open graves, and snake poison is under their lips, from which their tongues discharge lies.” (Psa. 5:9; 140:3)

<sup>14</sup>”Their mouths are open, running sewers of curses and bitter cynicism.” (Psa. 10:7)

<sup>18</sup>”They have no real concern about respecting God or fearing Him.” (Psa. 36:1)

<sup>19</sup>Now we know that whatever God's Law says, it says to those who are under its authority. The result is that we find ourselves with absolutely no argument—because everyone in the whole world is found guilty before God.

<sup>20</sup>And we can't become free of our guilt before God by obeying God's laws, because God's laws can't cancel the sin we've committed. They only reveal what we should be doing and haven't done.

Lesson 8 - Righteousness Through Faith - Romans 3:21-31

God's Way of Making People Right

<sup>21</sup>But now God's way of freeing people of guilt before Himself has been clearly revealed. It has nothing to do with obeying the Law, although the Law of Moses and the Prophets spoke about it.

<sup>22</sup>We can now be made right with God by believing in Jesus Christ! Right standing with God is now available to everyone, and will be given to all who truly believe in Him.

<sup>23</sup>Because there's no difference, for all of us have sinned, and we all fall far short of God's perfect standard and character.

<sup>24</sup>But now we can all be made right with God because of what Christ Jesus did to redeem us. And it's a free gift—a favor from God that we don't deserve.

25-26 It was God who designed the plan to have Jesus make amends for us by suffering and shedding His blood for us on the cross, so that He could look upon us with kind approval when we believe and accept His gift by faith. He did this to show how altogether right, fair, just, and honorable He is. Although in the past God was tolerant, and left sin unpunished, He has now demonstrated His high standards of always doing what is altogether right—by being altogether just in dealing with our sin, and at the same time being the One who forgives all who come to Him, believing and trusting in Jesus. And God Himself declares that they now have right standing with Him.

27 So who can boast? No one! Boasting is excluded. Through what principle, then, can you be pardoned? Is it by some good works that you do? No, but by means of your faith in Jesus and what He did for you.

28 So we conclude that a person is declared to be in right standing with God by means of his faith, and not by obeying the Law.

29 Is God only the God of the Jews? Isn't He also the God of everyone else? Of course He is.

30 Since there's only one God, it is He who will bring Jews to right standing with Himself as a result of their faith, and everyone else to right standing by means of their faith.

31 Does faith make the law void? Not at all! We establish the law.
