An Illustration From Marriage

7 All of you know something about law. So surely, my brothers and sisters, you know that the law has power over a person only as long as he's alive.

2 For example: A married woman is bound by law to her husband as long as he lives. But if he dies, she is free to marry someone else.

3 If she lives with another man while her husband is still living, she will be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, the law no longer considers her married, and she does not commit adultery if she marries another man.

4 For that reason, my dear friends, when the Messiah suffered and died on the cross for your sins, you were released from your marriage to the Law of Moses. So now you can be married to another—to the One who was raised from the dead, so that through your marriage to Him, you might produce fruit unto God.

5 When we lived mainly to satisfy the various appetites of our flesh, our corrupt desires became rebellious and inflamed when the Law challenged our actions, and we kept on bearing fruit that would result in death.

6 But now we've been set free from the Law, because that which once controlled our lives is now dead. Now we joyfully serve God with new understanding and a new heart, no longer hoping to get right with God in the old way by performing the rites and ceremonies of the Law.

Lesson 15 - Struggling With Sin - Romans 7:7-25

Our Fight Against Sin

7What shall we conclude then? Is the Law sinful? Of course not! In fact, I wouldn't have known what sin was unless the Law had revealed it to me. For example, I wouldn't have known that it's wrong to eagerly desire what belongs to someone else if the Law hadn't said, "You shall not covet." (Ex. 20:17; Dt. 5:21)

8But sin, pouncing upon the opening it had when I began thinking about the things the Law said were wrong, caused me to have all kinds of evil desires. When there was no Law, sin was dormant.

9I was once alive when I knew nothing about the Law. But when I came face-to-face with God's commands, sin came alive in me, and I soon realized I was doomed to death!

10So I found that the very commands that should have led me to life, resulted in death instead.

11My sinful nature seduced me to sin because of the very rules and commands of the Law. So it was really my sinful nature that put me to death by the demands of the Law.

12Still, there is nothing wrong with the Law. What the Law demands is altogether right, just, and good.

13So has something good been the cause of my death? Not at all! But it was sin, revealed for what it really is, that brought death to me through what is good. It was by means of God's commands that sin was exposed as the horrible and deceitful thing that it really is.

The War Within Us

14Because we know that the Law is spiritual; but I am carnal, a creature of the flesh, sold into slavery under the control of sin.

15In fact, I can't explain why I do what I do, because the good I'm determined to do, I don't do. But I keep doing things I hate.

16So then, I must consent to the fact that the Law is good, especially when it condemns those wrong things I really don't want to do, but still keep doing.

17But I'm really not the one doing the wrong; it's the sinful nature within me.

18Yes, I know full well that nothing good is living within me—that is, within my unrenewed nature [my flesh] —because even though I want to do what's good, I can't follow through and do it!

19Because the good I want to do, I don't do, but I keep on doing the evil things I don't want to do.

20So if I keep on doing what I don't want to do, this means I am no longer the one doing it, but it's the sinful nature within me that's doing it.

21So I've discovered the rule, that, when I want to do what's right, evil is always there to pull me down.

22In my heart, I take delight in the Law God has given us.

23But I find another law working within me, fighting against what my mind wants. It's the sinful nature within me, bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24Oh, what a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body that's taking me to death?

25Thank God! There is abundant deliverance through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, to sum up what I've just said: As for myself, my mind is set and determined to obey God's laws, but if I depend on my own strength to do so, I will buckle under and serve the law of sin.
