

THE LETTER TO THE CHURCH IN PHILADELPHIA (Rev. 3:7-13)

Read Revelation 3:7-13

**What Scholars Say****

DESTINATION

Rev.3:7. The city of Philadelphia was 28 miles southeast of Sardis. It was located in an area noted for its agricultural products but afflicted with earthquakes which destroyed the city several times, most recently about A.D. 37. The word philadelphia, means "brotherly love," which occurs seven times in the Bible (Rom 12:10; 1 Thess 4:9; Heb 13:1; 1 Peter 1:22; 2 Peter 1:7[twice]; Rev 3:7).

Christ described Himself as the One who is holy and true, who holds the key of David, and who is able to open or shut a door which no one else could open or shut. The holiness of Christ is a frequent truth in Scripture (1 Peter 1:15), and being holy He is worthy to judge the spiritual life of the Philadelphia church. "The key of David" seems to refer to Isa 22:22, where it relates to messianic authority.

COMMENDATION

Rev. 3:8. As in the messages to the other churches, Christ stated, I know your deeds. In keeping with the description of His authority to open and close doors (v. 7), He declared, See, I have placed before you an open door that no one can shut. There is no word of rebuke, though Christ said, I know that you have little strength. These words, however, become a basis for His commendation that you have kept My word and have not denied My name.

Rev. 3:9. Christ referred to their enemies as the synagogue of Satan (cf. 2:9). They were Jews who opposed the believers' Christian testimony. False religion has always been opposed to the true Christian faith. The day will come, however, when all opponents of the faith will have to acknowledge the truth (cf. Isa 45:23; Rom 14:11; Phil 2:10-11). Then Christ declared, I will make them come and fall down at your feet and acknowledge that I have loved you.

PROMISE

Rev. 3:10. The church in Philadelphia received no rebuke from Christ. Instead they were commended and given a promise because they had been willing to endure patiently. The promise was, I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is going to come upon the whole world to test those who live on the earth. This is an explicit promise that the Philadelphia church will not endure the hour of trial which is to be unfolded. The Philadelphia church would not enter this future time of trouble.

The expression "the hour of trial" (a time period) makes it clear that they would be kept out of that period.

Rev. 3:11. Additional promises were given. Christ promised, I am coming soon, a concept repeated often in the Book of Revelation. The thought is not simply that of coming soon but coming suddenly or quickly (cf. 1:1; 2:16). They were exhorted in the light of His coming to continue to hold on to what they have.

Rev. 3:12. Everyone who is an overcomer will become a pillar in the temple of... God. This is of course symbolic of the permanent place in heaven for believers, referred to here as the temple of God. The entire New Jerusalem will be the ultimate temple (21:22). In contrast to earthly temples and earthly pillars which fall, believers will continue forever in the temple. Christ specified that He was referring to the city of My God, that is, the New Jerusalem (cf. 21:2). He repeated His promise: I will also write on him My new name (cf. 2:17; 14:1; 19:12). Because believers have identified with Christ by faith, He will identify Himself with them.

EXHORTATION

Rev. 3:13. The letter closed with the familiar appeal, hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The promise given to the Philadelphia church and the challenge to continue to be faithful is certainly God's Word to His whole church today.

**My Thoughts****

1. There are four things that Christ sees in the Philadelphia church. (a) He sees there works. (b) Although they have little strength: they have (c) Kept His Word. (d) They have not denied His Name (Person). Only praise was given for the Philadelphia church.

2. The key of David (v.7) represents the Davidic Messiahs authority to open the door of invitation into His kingdom. After the door is opened, no one can close it – today is the day of salvation. Once it is closed, no one can open it – judgment is certain.

I like Jesus simple Eschatology (the doctrine of future events): Matt. 13:47-51.

3. “The Hour of Trial” is the period of testing that precedes the consummation or entering of His future Kingdom. It can be looked upon in three different ways:

(a) There will be a future time of great tribulation from which true believers will be spared.

(b) The church will go through the time of tribulation and that God will keep them strong in the midst of it.

(c) An hour of trial or tribulation upon the churches in John’s day in which the Philadelphia church will be spared. (example: God sovereignly wanted to save the squirrel.)
