Paul's Journey to Jerusalem

21 After we had torn ourselves away from them, our ship set sail and we put out to sea and headed straight for Cos. The next day we reached Rhodes, and from there we sailed to Patara.

² Upon finding a ship there that was crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and sailed with them.

³ When the island of Cyprus came into view, we sailed south of it and continued on our voyage to Syria. We docked at Tyre, where the ship was to unload its cargo.

⁴ When we found the Lord's followers who lived there, we stayed a week with them. Through the Holy Spirit they kept telling Paul to give up his plan to visit Jerusalem.

⁶ When we had finally said our last good-bye, we boarded the ship, and they returned to their homes.

⁷ Our voyage ended after we sailed from Tyre to Ptolemais. We brought greetings to the Lord's followers there, and stayed with them one day.

⁸ The next day, Paul, and those of us who were accompanying him, left and went on to Caesarea. There we went to the home of Philip the evangelist, one of the seven original deacons,* and stayed with him.

Acts 21:8 – “One of the seven original deacons*.” See Acts 6:1-6

⁹ He had four unmarried daughters who had the gift of prophecy.

¹⁰ After we had been there several days, a man named Agabus, who also had the gift of prophecy, came down from Judea.

¹¹ When he arrived, he took Paul's belt, and tied his own hands and feet with it. Then he said, “This is what the Holy Spirit is saying, ‘This is how the Jews at

Jerusalem will tie up the man who owns this belt. Then they will hand him over to the Romans.””

¹²When we heard this, both we and those who lived there pleaded most earnestly with Paul to abandon his visit to Jerusalem.

¹³“What are you doing here,” Paul responded, “crying like this and breaking my heart? Not only am I willing to be bound, but I am also willing to die in Jerusalem for the sake of the Lord Jesus.”

¹⁴So when it became clear that we couldn’t change his mind, we gave in, and said, “May the Lord’s will be done.”

¹⁵When our visit there was over, we got our things together and went up to Jerusalem.

¹⁶Some of the followers from Caesarea also went with us. They brought with them a man named Mnason, in whose home we were to stay. He was from Cyprus, and had been a follower since the early days.

Lesson 56 - Paul's Arrival at Jerusalem - Acts 21:17-26

Paul's Visit With James

- ¹⁷When we arrived in Jerusalem, the Lord's followers there warmly welcomed us.
- ¹⁸The next day Paul and the rest of us went in to see James. All the other elders were also there.
- ¹⁹After Paul had greeted them he gave them a complete, detailed report of what God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.
- ²⁰When they had heard his report, they praised the Lord. But then they said, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews have become followers—but all of them are also zealous about obeying the Law of Moses.
- ²¹"But they've been repeatedly told that you teach all Jews who live among the Gentiles to abandon the teachings of Moses, and that you tell them they should not circumcise their children or follow any of the Jewish customs.
- ²²"What should we do about this? The people will certainly hear that you have come, and they'll want to meet with you about this.
- ²³"So why not do this? Four of our men have made a vow to God.
- ²⁴"Go with them and join them in the ceremony of purification, and pay their expenses to have their heads shaved. Then everyone will know that these rumors about you are not true, but that you yourself live in accordance with the requirements of the Laws of Moses.
- ²⁵"But we have written the Gentile followers that in our judgment they do not need to observe these Laws, but that they refrain from eating food offered to idols, from eating blood or the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality."
- ²⁶So the next day, Paul took the four men and was purified along with them. He then went to the Temple to announce the date when the purification would end. At that time, a sacrifice would be offered for each one of them.

Lesson 57 - Paul Arrested - Acts 21:27-36

Paul Arrested

27-28 But when the seven days had nearly ended, some Jews from the province of Asia saw him in the Temple courts, and they turned everyone there against him. Grabbing hold of him they screamed, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who's going around speaking to everyone everywhere against our people and the Law, and against this holy place! And added to that he's also defiled this holy place by bringing some Greeks into the Temple!"

29(They said this because they had previously seen Trophimus from Ephesus with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the Temple as well.)

30This aroused the whole city, and the people came running together from every direction. They grabbed hold of Paul and dragged him out of the Temple courts, and immediately the gates were shut.

31As they were trying to kill him, news reached the commander of the Roman garrison that all Jerusalem was rioting.

32He at once took some captains and soldiers and ran down to the mob. As soon as the rioters saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

33The commander then took Paul from them, and gave orders that he be bound with two chains. Then he asked the people, “Who is this man? What has he done?”

34In response the crowd began shouting, some one thing, some another. So when he couldn’t make out what the truth was because of the turmoil, he ordered that Paul be brought into the barracks.

35When they reached the steps to the barracks, the mob became so violent that the soldiers had to carry him.

36And still the mob followed, shouting, “Away with him! Away with him!”

Lesson 58a - Paul Speaks to the Crowd - Acts 21:37-40 (Part 1)

Paul's Defense before the Angry Crowd

³⁷As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he said to the commander, "May I speak to you?"

"Do you speak Greek?" he replied.

³⁸"Aren't you the Egyptian who stirred up a revolt and led four thousand terrorists out into the desert some time ago?"

³⁹"No, I am a Jew from Tarsus, an important city in Cilicia," Paul replied. "May I have your permission to speak to the people?"

⁴⁰Upon receiving permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned with his hand to the crowd. When there was a great hush, he spoke to them in Hebrew, saying,
